Annie Armstrong Offering To Help Build Mississippi Indian Center

$10,000 of this year's Annie Armstrong offering for Home Missions has been allocated to be used toward the construction of the proposed Indian Center to be located in Mississippi, it has been revealed by Miss Edwina Robinson, state WMU secretary.

Above is a photo showing a group of Choctaw Indians in front of an imaginative drawing of a building symbolizing the program of work among the Indians to be carried out when the Center is built.

The convention-wide goal for this year's offering is $1,200,000 with Mississippi's share set at $77,000.00. This would be a 10% increase over the $70,173.32 given by the women of the state last year.

The offering will be taken next week during the Week of Prayer for Home Missions and those contributing are urged to give liberally due to the need for the Indian Center.

Rev. and Mrs. Horace Fisher, Home Mission Board missionaries to the Indians, have pointed to the great need for such a center.

It could be used for purposes of teaching, counseling, preaching, fellowship, recreation and various other ways in working with the Choctaws.

The Center will be constructed by the Home Board.

If the article you expected to see in this week's issue does not appear it is because of lack of space. There are six pages of figures showing the gifts of the churches, and therefore much material must wait until next week.

What Was Your Part In The Report?

An Editorial

This week's Baptist Record carries the financial report of Dr. Chester L. Quarles, executive secretary and treasurer of the Mississippi Baptist Convention, for the first three months of the Convention year (November 3 through January 31). We urge every reader to study it closely. Too often we only read the figures concerning our own church. Some scan the record of their own association and a few look at the totals.

Much pleasure, profit, information, and inspiration could come from a careful reading of these pages. Compare your church with others of comparable size and situation. In doing so you will be on Scriptural grounds and following in the footsteps of Paul, the apostle. He held up the Macedonian churches as an example to the church at Corinth.

Take a good look at the record of your church. Ask

REA Personality

Mrs. Agnes Pylant, secretary Department of Recreation, Sunday School Board, Nashville, will be one of the featured speakers for the ninth annual state Religious Education Association meeting to be held at the Edgewater Gulf Hotel, Edgewater Park, Miss., Feb. 28-Mar. 2, it has been announced by Dr. Norman O'Neal, Clinton, association president.

Mrs. Pylant will also be toastmistress for the banquet to be held on Monday evening following the regular program.

Every educational worker in the state is urged to attend the meeting, to begin Monday at 2 p. m. and adjourn at noon Wednesday.

Several other outstanding leaders are scheduled to be on program. Recreation feature will be a boat trip Tuesday afternoon.

Mississippi Baptist Cooperative Program receipts for the first quarter of this Convention year —November, December, January—were $293,190.02, a decrease of $24,623.08 from the amount given the same period a year ago.

Dr. Chester L. Quarles, executive secretary-treasurer, pointed out that the decrease was apparently due in large part to the record amounts given during September and October of 1954 when special efforts were made to reach the capital needs division of the 1954 budget for the state institutions.

$149,696.40 was contributed in September and $179,312.42 in October, both all-time high record months, which resulted in completing the 1954 capital needs budget and also bringing a record high $198,861.42 gain over the previous year.

Dr. Quarles urged however that the churches increase their contribution during the present second quarter in an effort to overcome this decrease and close the quarter with an increase over last year.

Additional Cooperative Program materials are currently being sent to church and associational leaders and these are urged to use them to best advantage.

yourself this question, "What part did I have in these gifts?"

Another way to gain inspiration, suggested by Dr. E. S. James, editor of the Baptist Standard (Texas) is to take the amount given by your church and see many hours, minutes, or seconds Baptist work throughout the world could operate. He says that present costs average $20 per minute. To carry on the work for only one hour requires $1200. If your church gave $400 through the Cooperative Program it will keep our work going exactly 20 minutes.

Dr. James also suggests comparing these figures with the same period one, five, and ten years ago. Have they increased in comparison with the increased income and increased membership of your church?

It will also be wise, even if, in some cases, embarrassing, to see how much it would have been if all members of your church tithed.

The total gifts for these months were $293,041. The average income of Baptists in Mississippi is certainly as much, probably more, than $1,000 per year. There are approximately 431,000 members in the churches of the Mississippi Baptist Convention. A year's income would total $431,000,000. A tithe of that for a year would be $43,100,000 and the three months' tithe would be $10,775,500. If the average for missions was 25 per cent, the three months total would be $2,693,750. The three months' total WAS $293,041. There is a big difference between what should have been given and what was given.

A few churches have no record of any gift to our mission work. That means that the pastor, the deacons, the officers, teachers, and workers in the various organizations gave nothing. If I were pastor of a church, a teacher, or an officer, there would be something for the Cooperative Program, for I, regardless of what others did, would give something.

To those churches that gave nothing: Can you cite one single Scripture to justify giving nothing? Even the widow gave her two mites.

And furthermore, Christ gave the command, "Go ye into all the world" to ALL churches, not some of them. He made no exceptions.

We still believe that EVERY church would do something, little or large, if someone would present the matter.

Liquor Legalization Is Not The Answer

We sing, "Tell Me the Old, Old Story." And as usual, some are singing the old, old story by urging that liquor be legalized. Their plea is that taxes from that source would solve the present tax situation in Mississippi. We could use all 16 pages of this issue of the Baptist Record with reasons why this is not true. But here are a few.

It has not worked any such miracles in any state where liquor has been legalized. States with legal liquor have just as acute financial problems as Mississippi.

Before repeal of Prohibition it was claimed that liquor taxes would help lower taxes. Have they? Compare your tax bill now and then.

They say the law is not enforced. In too many places this is true. But the fault is not with prohibition, but with officers who swore to enforce the law and failed to keep their word.

If the bootleggers do not obey the present law why should we expect them to obey a new law?

Even the disgraceful Black Market tax is not obeyed. Some estimate that less than 10 per cent of the bootleggers pay the tax. By what mysterious power would legalization change the present law breakers into saintly citizens?

We know of no law that is completely enforced. Recently while driving 55-60 miles an hour we were passed by seven cars and two trucks, within 30 minutes all exceeding the speed limit. Does that prove that the speed law should be repealed?

Banks are being robbed every day. Burglary is no novelty. The narcotics law, as well as others, is not perfectly enforced. Shall we repeal them?

A few years ago it was reported that having legal liquor in Massachusetts was costing the state several times as much as the revenue therefrom.

According to the Yale Survey, in 1951 there were 37,000 alcoholics in Arizona who cost the taxpayers $10,000,000. Liquor revenue that year amounted to $2,252,334. The alcoholics cost the state (not counting crime, disease, corruption, and heartache) $7,727,666 more than it received.

Legalization means more crime, more jails and the expenses thereof, more court costs, more hospitals, more orphanages, more help for the needy (a by-product of liquor), more courts, more divorces, more broken homes, more hangovers, and more heartaches.

And there will be less money to spend with legitimate merchants, less love and affection for wives and children, less efficiency in workers, less money for buying homes, less sparkle in the eyes of drunkards' wives, and less laughter from hungry children.

What we need and need badly is for the legislature to be as good as its word. In the words of Sen. George Owen of Pontotoc County, "The legislature ought to do exactly what the people mandated us to do in the 1952 referendum."

Or as Henry Harris said recently in the West Point TIMES-LEADER:

"Governor Hugh White says that prohibition as practiced in this state is a 'farce.' The proposed increased state tax on illegal whisky prompted the statement. We agree, Governor. We remember, too, however, the statement you made in connection with the special local opinion election — declaring that if the majority of Mississippi voters turned thumbs down on legal liquor that you (and the Legislature) would consider the vote as a mandate to enforce our prohibition laws. We have noted no drastic action on your part to fulfill the promise — and thus repeat the word: 'farce.'"

Frankly, the legislature has not kept its word. Many want to, but a few work wires and use unfair practices to prevent doing what the law, which they voted for, mandated them to do.

We see frequent references to "the farce of prohibition." We remind you of the farce of legalization.

A Meaningful Week

The week of February 28 to March 4 means much to Southern Baptist Convention work. This is the week when there will be Convention-wide observance of The Annie W. Armstrong Home Mission Week of Prayer. This important week is promoted by the W. M. U.

Not only do our good women study and pray about Home Missions, but they do something about it. They give.

The offering is named for first executive - secretary of Woman's Missionary Union, Miss Annie W. Armstrong — who was named to this position in 1888 at the organizational meeting at Richmond, Virginia.

Miss Armstrong put her all into this important position. Only ten states were included at the beginning. For eighteen years she worked without salary and most of the time paid her own travelling expenses.

Because of failing health she resigned in 1906, but though absent in body her spirit has carried on through her successors and probably until Jesus comes.

The offerings continues to grow. From a few thousand per year it now, in 1954, totals $1,212,434. This was 40 per cent of the income of the Home Mission Board. Wherever Home Board work goes, there go dollars from the Annie W. Armstrong offering.

In fact, the work of the Home Board would be seriously curtailed without the money provided by this offering.

Dr. Courts Redford, Executive Secretary of the Home Mission Board, names the following as some of the trophies from this offering:

1. More knowledge of mission achievements and mission needs.
2. More interest in mission work.
3. More churches enlisted in missionary endeavor.
4. More people participating in missionary service.
5. More young people dedicated to missionary service.
6. More money for mission work.
7. More opportunity for mission advance.
8. More prayer and more spiritual power for missionary endeavor.
9. More lost people saved, more saved people enlisted, more churches constituted, and better equipment provided.
10. A missionary awakening that will bless all Kingdom interests at home and abroad.

FOR LUGGAGE... FOR BRIEF CASES... FOR ADULTS... FOR CHILDREN

In Georgia a bus load of school children (school girls) was struck by a train... sixteen had identification tags... in less than an hour all of their parents were notified. It took much longer to identify the others. In Memphis many children have been lost. When they have a tag around their necks, it is easy to notify their parents. THE CHURCH PROCLAIMS THE GOSPEL

Bible Text: Romans 10:8-15; I Corinthians 1:18-25.

INTRODUCTION

From the hour of the fall in the garden of Eden to this good hour the favorite scheme of the devil has been to delude people into the hope that they can save themselves. To plant that false hope in the heart of Eve was the aim of the temptation held out to her, "ye shall be as God, knowing good and evil". No one of us can save himself any more than he can lift himself over the house by pulling on the tops of his shoes, but to everyone who would be a self-saver or a self-helper in the matter of his own salvation, there is one consolation; the good Lord wants him to be a helper of others in their need to find the Lord.

Herein lies the paramount function of the church—that the church shall act as the agency for the bringing of lost people to the Lord. A church is the Bride of Christ and the sweetest, tenderest, finest function of the bride is to bear children into the family of God. The purpose of this lesson is to set forth the manner in which this process is to bear its fruit.

I. A CHURCH OF THE LIVING GOD

This is not in any case a mere organization. The Klu Klux Klan is an organization; so is masonry; so the Woodmen of the World; but none of these is an organism. A church of the living God is an organism. What makes it an organism? The living Spirit of the common life that animates all the body. A church of the living God is a body of people banded together and made vital by the indwelling Spirit of the living Christ. This Holy Spirit sets the members in the body as it pleases Him and in the same way assigns each member its full, distinct, and appropriate office.

Now it is through the agency of this organism that the Lord Christ has purposed to save lost men, and any man or woman who is a member of such an organism is duty bound to function as a helper of the Lord in the work of saving the lost.

II. WHAT THE GOSPEL IS

Of course we all know by heart the famous sentence of Paul in Romans 1:16 "I am not ashamed of the gospel; for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek."

5,000 CHRISTIAN WORKERS WANTED to sell Bibles, Testaments, good books handsome Scripture mottoes, Scripture calendars, greeting cards. Good commission. Send for free catalog and price-list. George W. Noble, The Christian Co., Dept. D, Pontiac Bldg., Chicago, 5, Ill.

This sentence is a judgment concerning the potency of the gospel, but it does not pretend to be a definition. For that purpose open your Bible to I Corinthians 15:1-8. "I make known unto you . . . the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye received, wherein also ye stand . . . (1) that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; (2) that he was buried; (3) that he hath been raised on the third day according to the scriptures; (4) that he appeared." He was raised from the dead, he appeared, then ascended, and he is coming back.

The gospel is the good news that the Savior promised through all the Old Testament has come to earth in the form of a human being, God in the form of a man, with purpose to work out redemption for the fallen race. The redemption has been made complete and the Savior lives again beyond the grip and grasp of death. These are the tidings glorious that are committed to the church with commission to bear them to the uttermost ends of the earth.

III. THE METHOD OF GOSPEL PROCLAMATION

Of course we are to think of a church of the living God as holding in stewardship all the wealth of the treasures of salvation, the riches of His word, the mysteries of His grace. Among these note especially:

1. The recorded word of God from His Holy Book, and from no other source do we learn that our heavenly Father is a God of redeeming grace. It is through this Book that we learn of the self-sacrificing love of our dear Lord. Through this Book we learn the history of the coming of the ever-present Helper, the Holy Spirit of God.
2. The nature of man. A church of the living God holds in stewardship the truth as to the origin of man, there is nowhere else in the world where these things can be learned, no other source of this necessary information. The devil never sleeps on his job or ceases for one instant, morning, noon, or night in his effort to convince man that he has no need of God, the mercy of God, the forgiveness of God. The need of man that is met in the sacrifice of his loving Lord is a radiant truth held in stewardship by a church. Along with these other great truths which the church holds in stewardship are the two ordinances which are set to commemorate — baptism, the burial and resurrection of our Lord; the supper, the death of our Lord.

IV. THE ATTITUDE OF CONFIDENT BOLDNESS

This attitude expressed by our brother Paul in the words, "I am not ashamed of the gospel" is the proper attitude of every member of the body of Christ. There are many and cogent reasons for this attitude:

1. The glory of the gospel. It

Dr. Riser To Lead Three Revivals

Dr. J. S. Riser

Dr. J. S. Riser, pastor of the Webb Church, is scheduled for revival services with Dr. Otis Jones and the Bude Church, March 6-11; with Rev. W. L. Warren and the First Church, Wiggins, March 16-25; and with Rev. John Nance and the Baptist Church, Douglas, Alaska, April 17-May 1, 1955. The Revival Services at Webb are scheduled for April 3-8, 1955, with Dr. Chester L. Quarles and Mr. W. C. Morgan as Evangelist and Singer.

has blazed the way for civilization into every land where civilization has a seat.

2. It has smitten the shackles of slavery from the souls of all the men and women who have ever been emancipated from bondage to the devil. So resistless is the power of the gospel that no barriers to its progress have ever been able to withstand its forward march.

3. This power of the gospel has its source in God. Our brother Paul says "it is the power of God." To say that is to say that the power of the gospel is irresistible. For that power to be placed under control of anybody is to make that body able to accomplish whatever the source of the power desires. A church of the living God authorized to employ that power will find it sufficient unto the breaking down of all strong holds against which its resistless might is directed.

4. A confidence because of the gospel's purpose. The race of mankind, has been wrecked by sin, ruined by the fall, weakened by wrongdoing, corrupted by sin's malady. All the sin of the world; War, pestilence, and everyone of the loathsome wick-equal in the contest with all sin, one glorious thing—the gospel. And the gospel is more than equal in the contest with all sin, to the task of throwing its strong-holds down.

The glorious privilege of wielding this power unto the approval and command of God is the matchless privilege of the church.

Worry Over Old Sin

Question: I am heart sick over something that happened to me over twenty-five years ago. I got in with the wrong crowd and had an awful downfall. I got out of their company and repented of my sins and have worked in the church ever since. God has blessed me with a fine son and daughter and now a grandchild. Often I feel happy in church but then the old feelings of shame come back. Why can't I forget if I have been forgiven?

Answer: You are suffering from an emotional trouble known as melancholia or depression. Often a depressed person will rake their memories to find old sins to talk about, or inquire about the unpardonable sin, or say that they feel that they are lost and cannot be saved. There are from 15 to 20 thousand such people every year in the United States who commit suicide.

The general public often turns a deaf ear to the cries of such depressed people, or quotes them a verse of Scripture, or tells them "not to be silly." But it takes more than that to cure a depression.

The reason you are bringing up your old sin is to tantalize yourself because you feel that you ought to be punished. Actually depression is anger at self. You are angry because you feel that you are not loved.

God loves you. People will love you if you will let them. Don't give up hope. Soften your severe conscience if you can. And if you do not get better see a medical doctor. When people worry over sins committed long ago, they are sick, even though heart sick.

Central Grove Builds New Pastorium

Mr. Barrett has been pastor at Central Grove for two years. The church has gone from half-time to full-time services during his ministry there and has recently adopted the EVERY FAMILY Plan of the Baptist Record.

Mr. and Mrs. Barrett live in the new pastor's home on weekends while he is attending Mississippi College. After his graduation in June they plan to move into the new house.

The Baptist Record appreciates a copy of the minutes of the 34th annual session of the Lee County Association which met with the Verona Church in September, 1954. The next session is scheduled to meet with the Shannon Church in October, 1955. The minutes are attractively prepared and printed.

The Baptists of Canada are using a broadcasting station in Bolivia to spread the Gospel message. This reaches many people who are not close to Protestant churches. And those who are close often fear to go into an evangelistic chapel lest their neighbors boycott them in business.

50 Years Ago

East McComb Baptist Church, under the leadership of Pastor J. B. Quin, moves up from half to full-time services. A Junior B. Y. P. U. has been organized with a "goodly number" enrolled.

Evangelist T. T. Martin preached in the revival meeting at Canton for ten days, and having to go to another engagement, Rev. S. E. Tull of Kosciusko was asked to continue it. Results: Twelve additions, eleven for baptism. S. G. Cooper, pastor.

25 Years Ago

"Celebrity Week" was observed at the noonday prayer meeting in the Workshop at M. S. C. W. The visiting speakers were Miss Irene Ward, Mrs. Platt, Dr. E. J. Caswell, Miss Eunice Adams and Miss Pauline Wynn.

At Blue Mountain, one week in January was given at noon-day prayer meeting to the topic, Dr. A. J. Gordon's book, "When Christ Came to Church."

SECOND WEEK'S CONFERENCES

Next week will be the second in our series of four for the twenty district conferences we are having over the state. We have these each spring but this time we cannot have the four weeks consecutively because of the weeks set apart for the Southwide simultaneous Evangelistic Crusade. However, we will get them all in, just the same.

So, next week is the second, and here is the schedule of places and dates:

Monday, February 28, Houston
Tuesday, March 1, Baldwin
Wednesday, March 2, Starkville, First

Thursday, March 3, Philadelphia, First

Friday, March 4, Newton, Clarke College

Each day's program begins at four in the afternoon and closes at nine at night, with lunch by the host church from 6:15 to 7:00.

The afternoon program is on Vacation Bible school and the evening session on the Sunday school. The program is practical, promotional, helpful. Attend the place that is most convenient.

Make these meetings helpful to your church by having a good representation, especially the Sunday school and Vacation Bible school workers.

What Is The Blue Cross-Blue Shield Plan?

The Blue Cross - Blue Shield Plan is the most successful system of group budgeting to prepay hospitalization and surgical expenses. No individual can tell when hospitalized illness or injury may come to him or his family, as well as a needed operation, and what the cost of needed service may be. In a given period of time, some people will incur no such expense, while on some others it will fall as a crushing burden. As a consequence, most individuals are uncertain of their ability to pay from personal resources at the time of need for the care they may require. Because many are unable to do so, hospitals are often unpaid for services rendered, making it difficult for them to maintain in the community a hospital service equal to the community's need. Also, physicians are many times unpaid because of the inability of the patient to pay for his needs when rendered professional care.

Blue Cross - Blue Shield is a plan through which people, companies and hospitals join forces to overcome this problem for the advantage of all. Blue Cross-Blue Shield offers the people of a community the chance to budget regularly in advance of need from their earnings, while they are well, to create a pooled fund out of which hospitals are paid.

Migratory Birds or Migrant Children? for their support and their equipment.

"Pearl was born in prunes; Sandy was born in peas. Soon as they could work at all, they began. We work from kin see to can't see."

Migrant people work long hours in the heat or in the cold; they have mostly ramshackle places for shelter, and there is little chance for school. What chance for church? Very little. Have you invited the migrant workers who come seasonally to your town or community to come to Sunday school and church?

Southern Baptist have five couples doing migrant work. The $25,000 to be given through our Annie Armstrong Offering cares

Each couple needs a trailer arranged for worship services. $25,000 will not go far, figure it out: salary of five couples, money for trailers, and gas to follow the crops with the people.

Last year a Christian congressman called attention to the fact that from Federal sources we spent $6,000,000 to protect migratory birds but none to lift migratory children.

How little Southern Baptist are doing! Let's give and pray and do more for the toiling families who help provide our year round fruits and vegetables.

Will You Share
the Gospel With SKEVAS
CARFEAS ZERVAS?

SKEVAS is a Greek-American. At 6, he is bright and cheerful, and—like his parents—loves America. But the environment of many Nationals denies them the knowledge of what makes men free and America great. They need the gospel.

Do you know and love a child with every opportunity for spiritual growth? Then share your love. In the name of Christ, make a promise to others. Perhaps you can't tell the story of our Lord to each one yourself. But you help in a real and direct way when you give through the Annie Armstrong Offering for Home Missions, sponsored by the Woman's Missionary Union.

The $1,212,434.59 WMU members gave through the Annie Armstrong Offering in 1954 accounted for 40% of all the funds to carry on the work of your Home Mission Board. This year, give what you can! It means a wonderful ministry to the Language Groups, Good Will Centers, hundreds of new Churches and a score of other programs by which 1,074 Missionaries CARRY THE WORD WHERE IT HAS NOT GONE.

Man Of Distinction

In an honest effort to aid the liquor industry in an effort to prove that liquor helps to make "Men of Distinction," we offer the following information to show that it not only makes men of distinction but quite often makes them men of EXTENSION.

The following news note from the Shreveport Journal proves that liquor does make people of distinction, but not always distinction about which the liquor industry can be proud.

S. S. Offerings Help Reduce Debt On Pastorium

The church at West is using an unusual plan to liquidate the $1,800 debt on the recently erected pastorium.

Like other Baptists, the Baptists at West are allergic to special offerings and as the time for a payment on the pastorium approached they became more so.

For years the Sunday School offerings had averaged about $7 per Sunday. It was suggested that the church pay for all Sunday School supplies and that all Sunday School offerings be used to pay on the pastorium debt.

The people liked the idea and the Sunday School offerings now average approximately $25 per Sunday. With the increased offering payments were made as follows: October, $90; November, $85; December, $60; January, $100.

And believe it or not, since the plan was inaugurated the church contributions have also increased.

Rev. L. D. Wall is the pastor.

Advertising, availability, and merit have made the refrigerator, the car, and the radio pass from the novelty to the necessity in the last fifty years. These three things can combine to do as great things for the church in the next fifty years. Already we have the availability and great merit. We need proper advertising. — Practical Church Publicity, by Richmond O. Brown.
